

Smart Waste Sorting System

The Smart Waste Sorting System is an innovative solution designed to automate waste separation using advanced sensors and machine learning algorithms. The system identifies and sorts recyclable materials from general waste, optimizing recycling processes and reducing landfill contributions. It features real-time data analytics and can be integrated into existing waste management systems.

