

Smart Biodegradable Bandage

The Smart Biodegradable Bandage is an innovative wound dressing made from natural polymers that not only promotes faster healing through moisture retention and controlled drug release but also decomposes safely in the environment. Integrated with biosensors, it provides real-time monitoring of wound conditions, alerting users to infections or complications via a mobile app.

